JOINING THE IIA IS AN INVESTMENT in your career and the profession.

The IIA is the internal audit profession's recognized authority, chief advocate, and principal educator. With a network of more than 190,000 members in 170 countries, The IIA is the largest global organization representing internal auditors today.

As the global voice of the profession, we set the Standards followed by internal auditors around the world through the International Professional Practices Framework® (IPPF®).

We have partnered with more than 30 standard-setting bodies globally, such as the International Federation of Accountants, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, and the International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions. All of this means our members can be part of, and take part in, more — more connections, knowledge, and savings.
